COMMUNITY SERVICES

The Center for Social Rehabilitation and Integration - CSRI is a new type of social service in the municipality of Dalgopol. The average number of consumers are estimated at around 30 people. Work at CSRI is based on the principle of partnership with consumers, not on care and patronage. We work in a team and build friendships with both consumers and their families. The following services are provided:

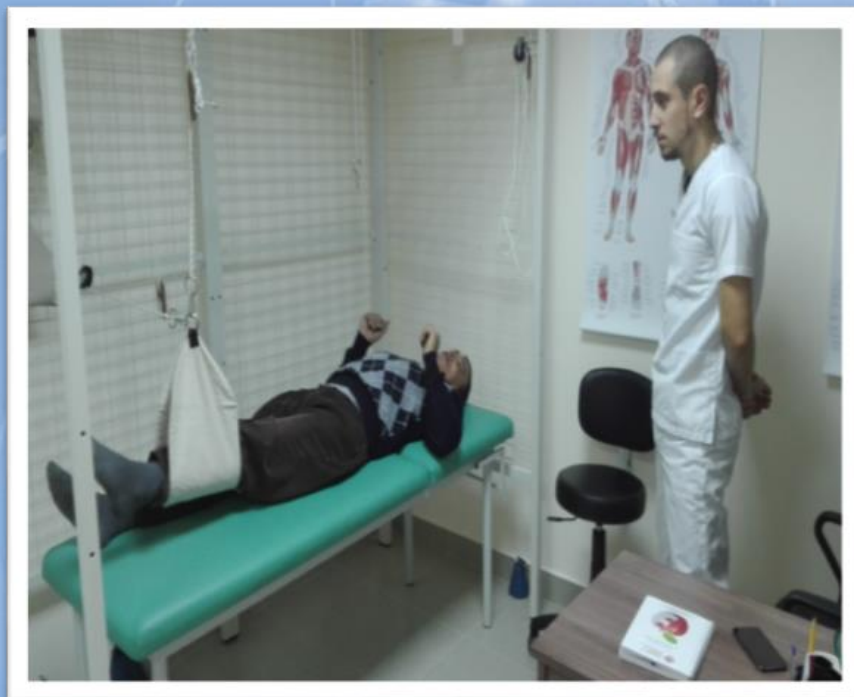

- Rehabilitation activity
- Psychological support
- Speech therapy activity
- Occupational therapy
- Social support
- Information and consulting activity
- Organization of free time
